"Tours You're Going to Love!"

The Laura Ingalls Wilder Park and Museum in Burr Oak is excited to offer this day trip to the Guthrie Theatre in Minneapolis for the newest offering about Laura and the Ingalls family. It is being presented on the more intimate proscenium stage, an ideal setting for you to enjoy this new classic.

On our trip up to the Guthrie we will have music, stories, contests and individuals sharing their insight and knowledge of the Ingalls family. We'll travel on a section of the Laura Ingalls Wilder Historic Highway and cross the family's path of former journeys as they lived in Walnut Grove, MN, before and after living in Burr Oak, IA. Later Laura and Almanzo lived in Spring Valley, MN.

By joining this tour you will help support our museum. This fund raising occasion will provide additional resources to support ongoing programming and our mission of helping to maintain the only childhood home of Laura Ingalls Wilder still in its original location and of bringing the pioneer legacy to current generations.

Guthrie announces 'Little House' cast

May 29, 2008

Minneapolis (AP) — Actress Melissa Gilbert returns to "Little House on the Prairie" - but this time playing the mother of her character from the popular 1970s television show.

The Guthrie Theater says Gilbert will play "Ma" Ingalls in a musical version of the "Little House" books that opens this summer.

As a child actress, the 44-year-old Gilbert portrayed Laura, the signature character in the TV series that starred Michael Landon.

The Guthrie says Kara Lindsay will play Laura in the musical. The role of "Pa" Ingalls will be played by Steve Blanchard, who starred as the Beast in Disney's "Beauty and the Beast" for eight years on Broadway.

The musical is based on Laura Ingalls Wilder's stories about her homesteading family, which lived for a time near De Smet, South Dakota.
